The meeting convened at 10:34 AM. In attendance: Deborah Albritton, committee chair, Kim Coale, Kathleen Hall, and Loletta Redmon.

The final meeting of the Faculty Professional Development Committee for this two year cycle was convened. Deborah Albritton, committee chair, expressed appreciation for the committee’s support and work during this assignment.

A discussion and evaluation of the 2007-2008 sessions was held. Suggestions for the incoming committee were discussed and listed. Suggestions for sessions included: Campus security plans and policies; designing and using rubrics; “Brown Bag” sessions for idea exchanges, especially for critical thinking activities; and a Course Redesign session, possibly presented in about a year. Other suggestions for the new committee included: choosing a yearly theme; trying to involve the technical areas as much as possible.

This two year committee was then adjourned at 10:52 AM.
