Beth developed and submitted a condensed outline of the QEP strategies. The committee members felt that the outline adequately summarized the major initiatives of the QEP and was very helpful.

Committee members agreed to visit Faulkner’s FAME lab on Monday, March 3rd. Faulkner developed the FAME lab as part of their QEP math focus. We will leave the Atmore campus at 12 noon.

The Marketing Committee members are Lee Barrentine, Chair, Lyn Gill, Jan House, Maurice Moore, Deborah Albritton, David Willis, and Shirley Williams. This committee will develop a plan for naming and marketing the QEP. The deadline is April 19, 2008.

The committee members were updated on the progress of the QEP document. We have a draft of the History Chapter and Process Chapter. The draft Literature Review Chapter will be completed by Monday, 11, 2008.

The deadline to complete the QEP Document is April 30, 2008.

A QEP update meeting with the QEP Leadership Committee and subcommittees will be held on February 13, 2008, at 1:30 in Wallace 111. At this meeting Allen Gainer will give an update on the Math initiative of the QEP. Other updates on college initiatives that came out of the early development phase of the QEP include the following:

Marilyn Nicholson – One-Stop Center
Lee Barrentine – EnhancedOrientation
Mary Beth Lancaster – Student-Centered Learning/Critical Thinking
Misti Nims – Blackboard

While these four college initiatives are not a focus of the QEP, they are very important and will continue to be emphasized and developed by the subcommittees.

The QEP Assessment methods were briefly discussed. The pretests emphasized the importance of improving students’ math skills.
Our next meeting is scheduled for February 20, 2008, at 1:30 in the Hines bldg. At this meeting we will discuss strategies to implement ideas that will be shared by Sandee House at the professional development activities on February 18, 2008.
